

Introduction to the Festival

AmiCorti IFF

The AmiCorti International Film Festival (AmiCorti IFF) is a premier annual event dedicated to celebrating the best of contemporary cinema with a particular emphasis on emerging directors, independent filmmakers, and unique artistic perspectives. Held in the picturesque town of Ivrea, Italy, the festival spans six days and features a diverse program of screenings, workshops, and special events.

AmiCorti IFF is renowned for its commitment to fostering creativity, innovation, and the exploration of social issues through film. The festival includes both competitive and non-competitive sections, offering filmmakers from around the world a platform to showcase their work in categories such as feature films, short films, animated films, music videos, and socially-themed films.

The festival's signature awards, including the Golden Fragola Award and the prestigious Golden Aurora Award, recognize excellence in filmmaking and honor outstanding contributions to the cinematic arts. Beyond its role as a showcase for high-quality films, AmiCorti IFF serves as a vibrant hub for cultural exchange, providing opportunities for filmmakers, industry professionals, and audiences to engage in meaningful dialogue and collaboration.

With its blend of in-person and virtual participation options, AmiCorti IFF is accessible to a global audience, making it a significant event on the international film festival circuit. The festival not only highlights the power of cinema as a tool for storytelling and social impact but also nurtures the next generation of filmmakers, inspiring them to push the boundaries of the art form.

Dates and Location:

The 7th edition of the AmiCorti International Film Festival will take place from June 23-28, 2025, in the historic town of Ivrea, Italy, at the renowned "AUDITORIUM MOZART."

The direction of the 7th AmiCorti International Film Festival (AmiCorti IFF) is led by a team of seasoned professionals from the film industry, dedicated to promoting creativity and innovation in cinema. The festival's artistic direction carefully selects films to showcase, with a strong focus on works that explore significant social, cultural, and artistic themes. The festival's leadership is committed to creating an event that not only celebrates cinematic excellence but also serves as a platform for dialogue and cultural exchange among filmmakers, audiences, and industry professionals.

The goal of the festival's direction is to establish AmiCorti IFF as a key event in the international festival circuit, offering a diverse program that reflects the latest trends in contemporary cinema and supports emerging talent.

Artistic Director

Mrita Rossi